

the bills, and to respond to the bills. So in my view you clearly come out with a great advantage, a time saver that benefits those of us in the body, and those outside of the body as well. So I very much support the committee amendments, and I would ask your support for this amendment to the committee amendments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Senator Crosby, to address the Wesely amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Withem, Mr. Speaker and members. Senator Withem...Senator Wesely, I want to ask you one, quick question. On page 202, I'm reading, we would convene the fifth Wednesday after the general. Is that only for one day?

SENATOR WESELY: No, no, no that...

SENATOR CROSBY: It doesn't say how many days.

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

SENATOR CROSBY: You're still having 90 days?

SENATOR WESELY: No, no, no...

SENATOR CROSBY: Total?

SENATOR WESELY: No, you'd still have 75 days, but the clock would start on that when we'd come back in January. So the time we spend in December, and there we're, I'm thinking, three to maybe five days or so.

SENATOR CROSBY: But how...but you're not establishing that?

SENATOR WESELY: No, uh-huh.

SENATOR CROSBY: How would you decide that?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, that would be our decision as to how much time we need.

SENATOR CROSBY: That's kind of weird. Thank you. I mean because we are setting.... Senator Warner said we did...it is,
